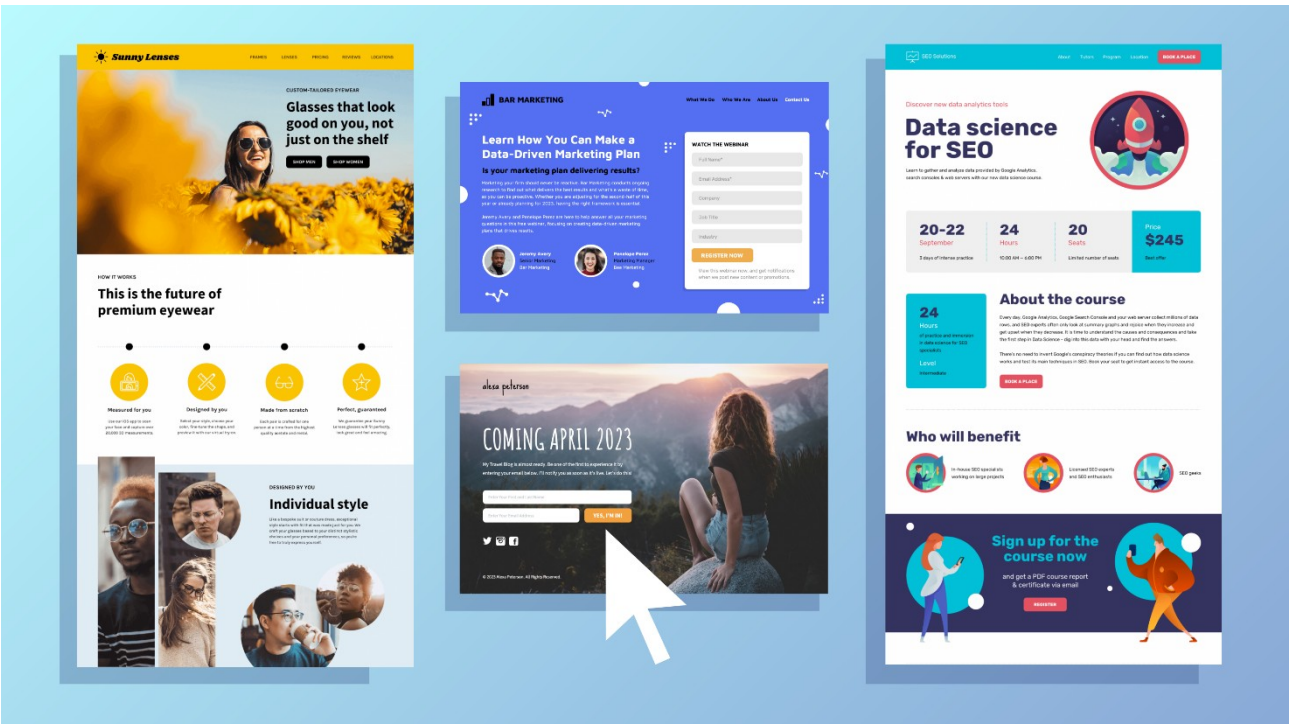
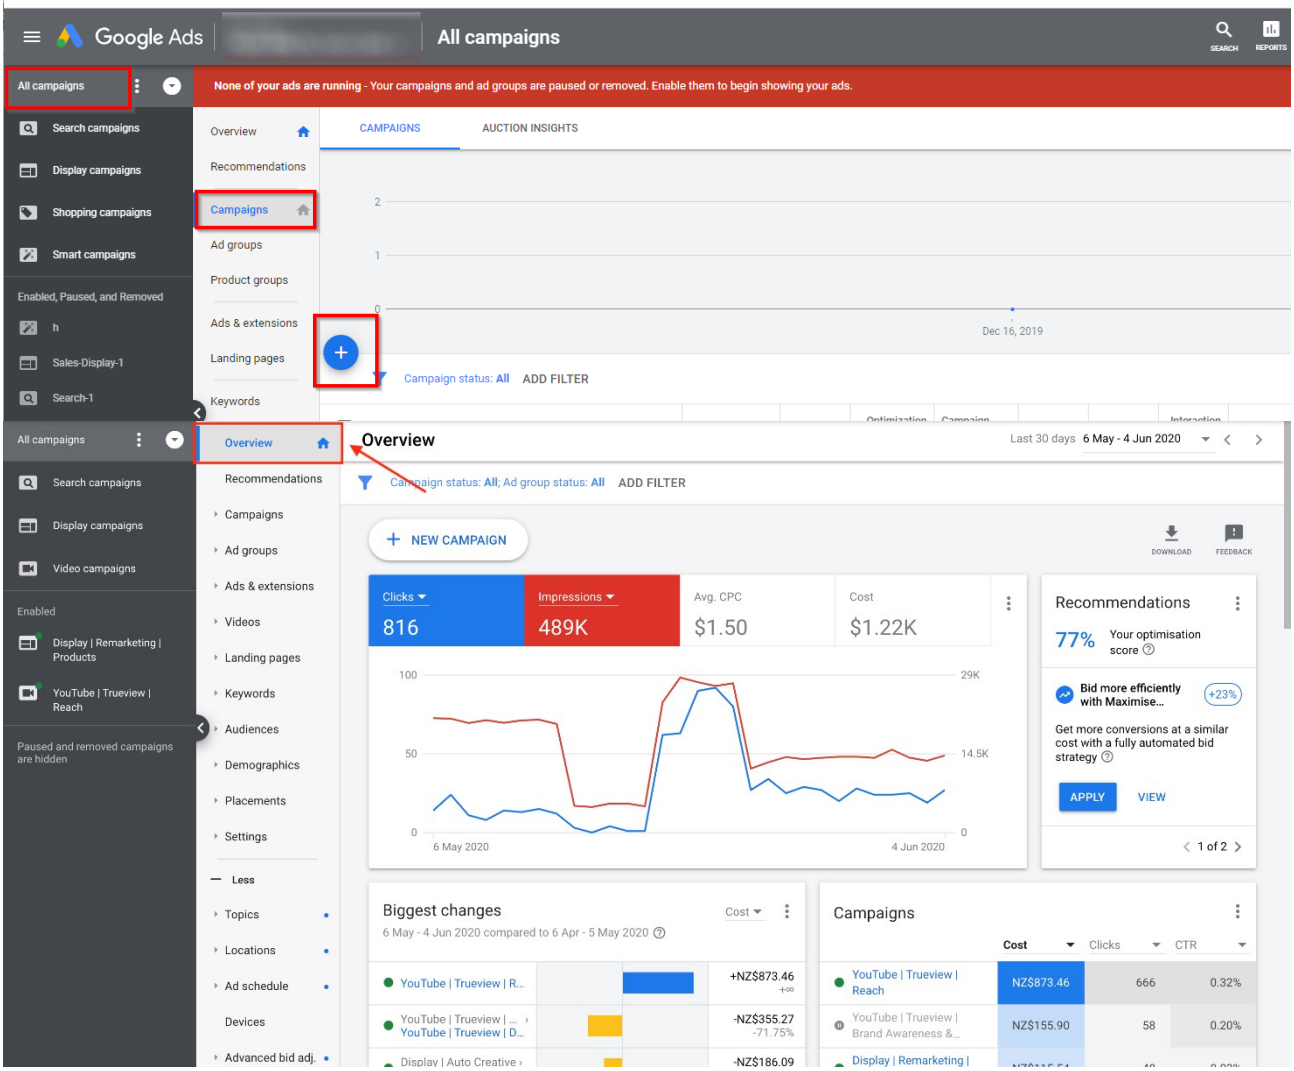
Step-by-Step Guide to Setting Up Google Ads for Sales

STEP 1: Preparation Before Launch

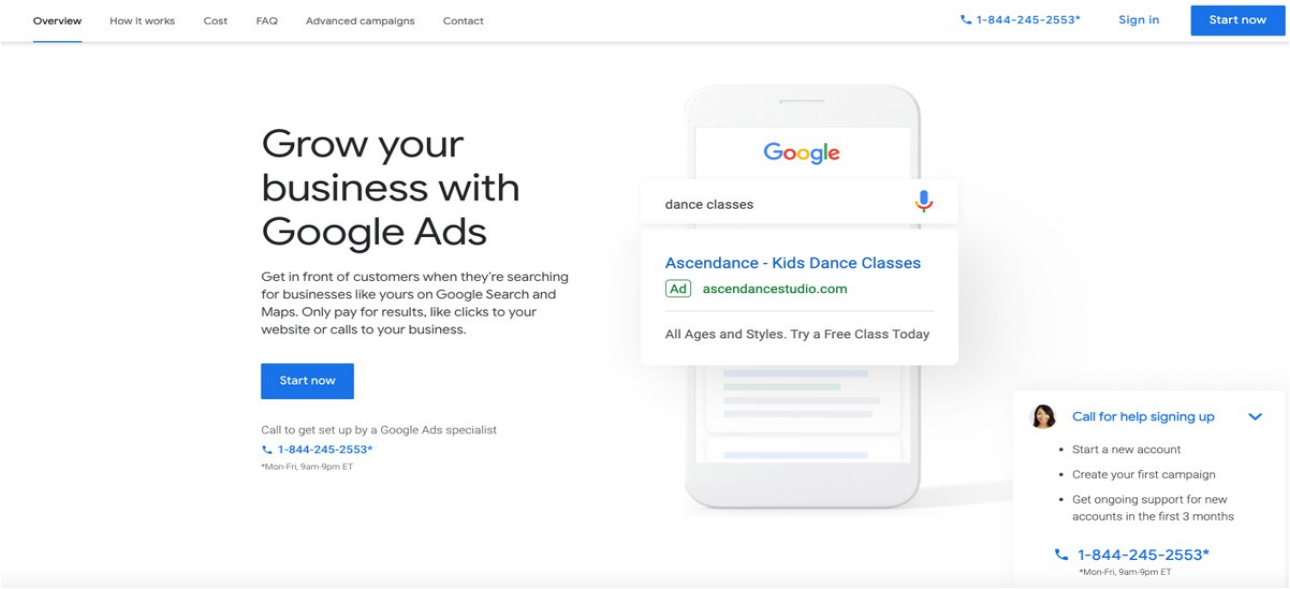
- Define your main goal (sales, leads, calls).
- Identify your target audience (location, age, needs, budget).
- Prepare a high-converting landing page.
- Create a clear Unique Selling Proposition (USP).





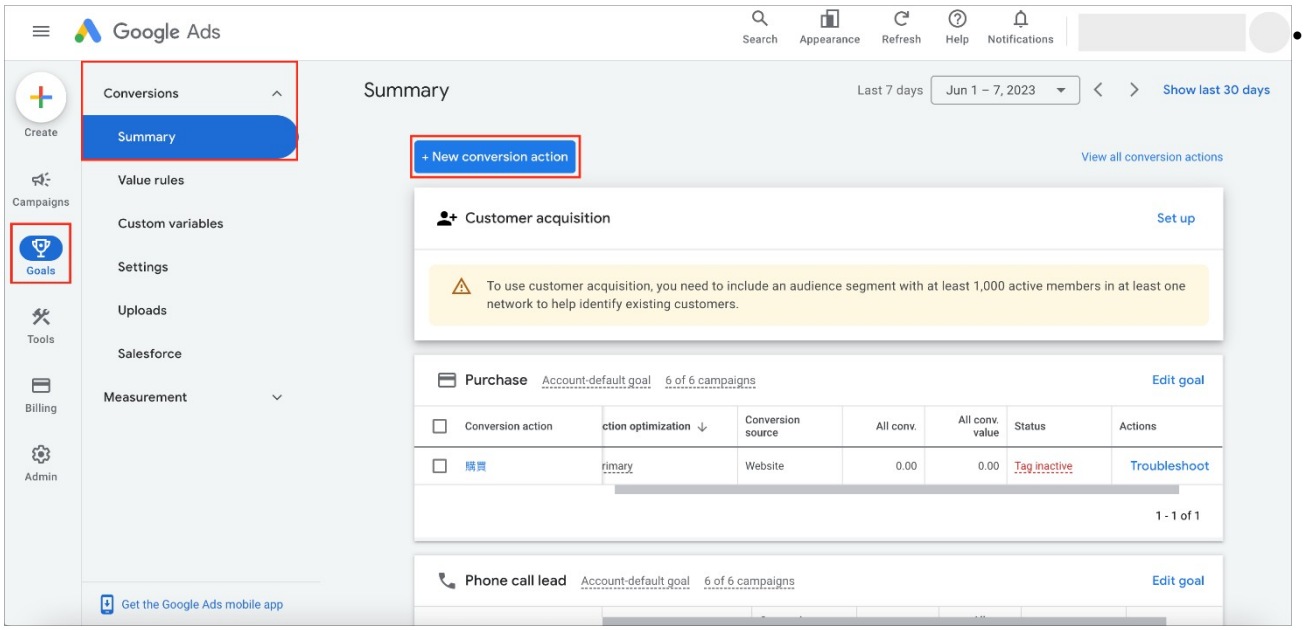
STEP 2: Create a Google Ads Account

- Go to ads.google.com.
- Sign in with your Google account.
- Switch to Expert Mode.
- Create an account without starting a campaign.



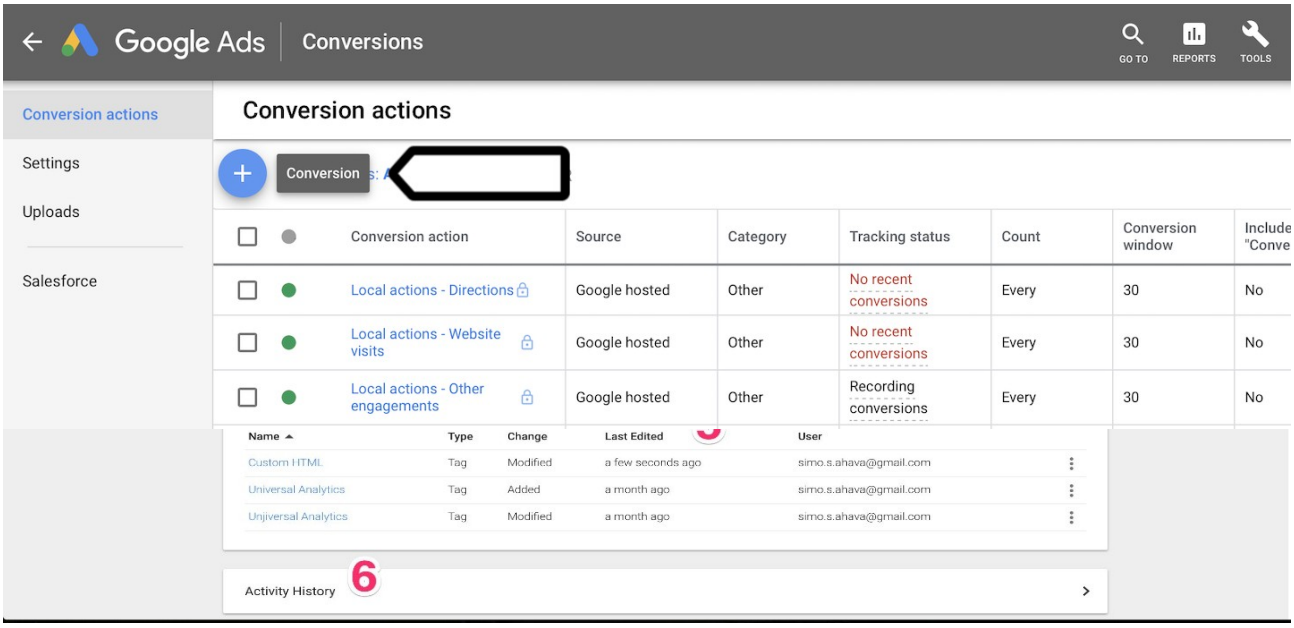
STEP 3: Set Up Conversion Tracking (Mandatory)

- Go to Tools & Settings ⌴ ⌴ Conversions.
- Click 'Create Conversion Action'.



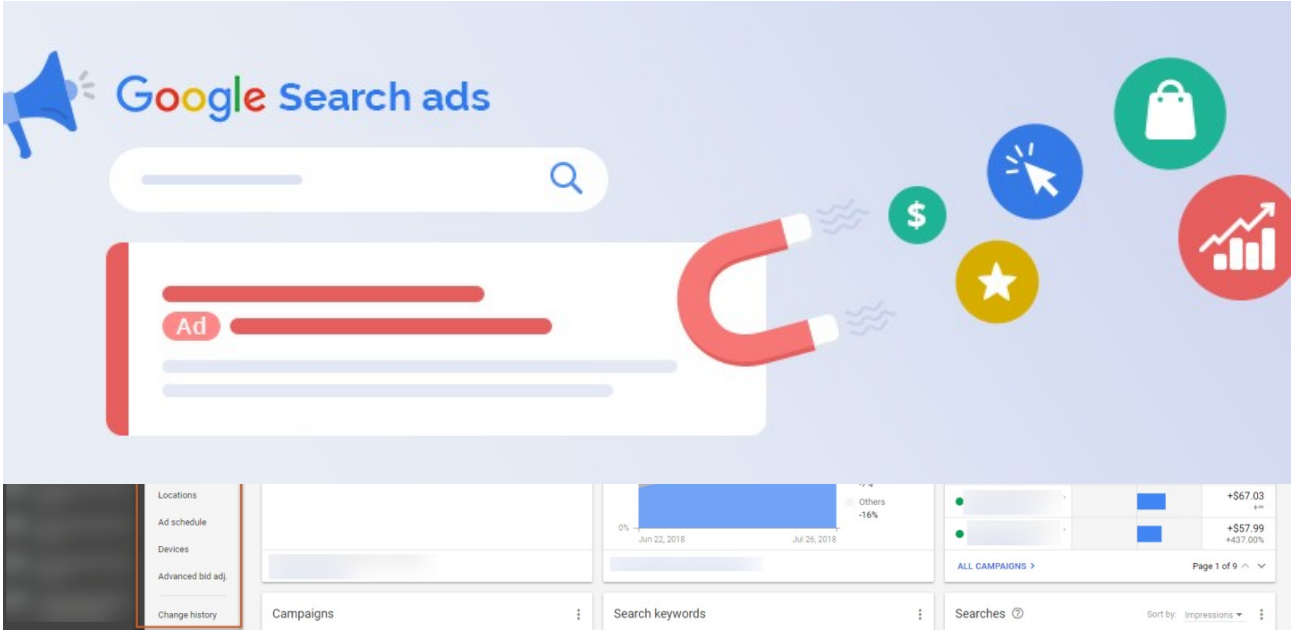
Choose purchase, form submission, or calls.

- Install the tracking tag via Google Tag Manager or manually.
- Test the conversion tracking.



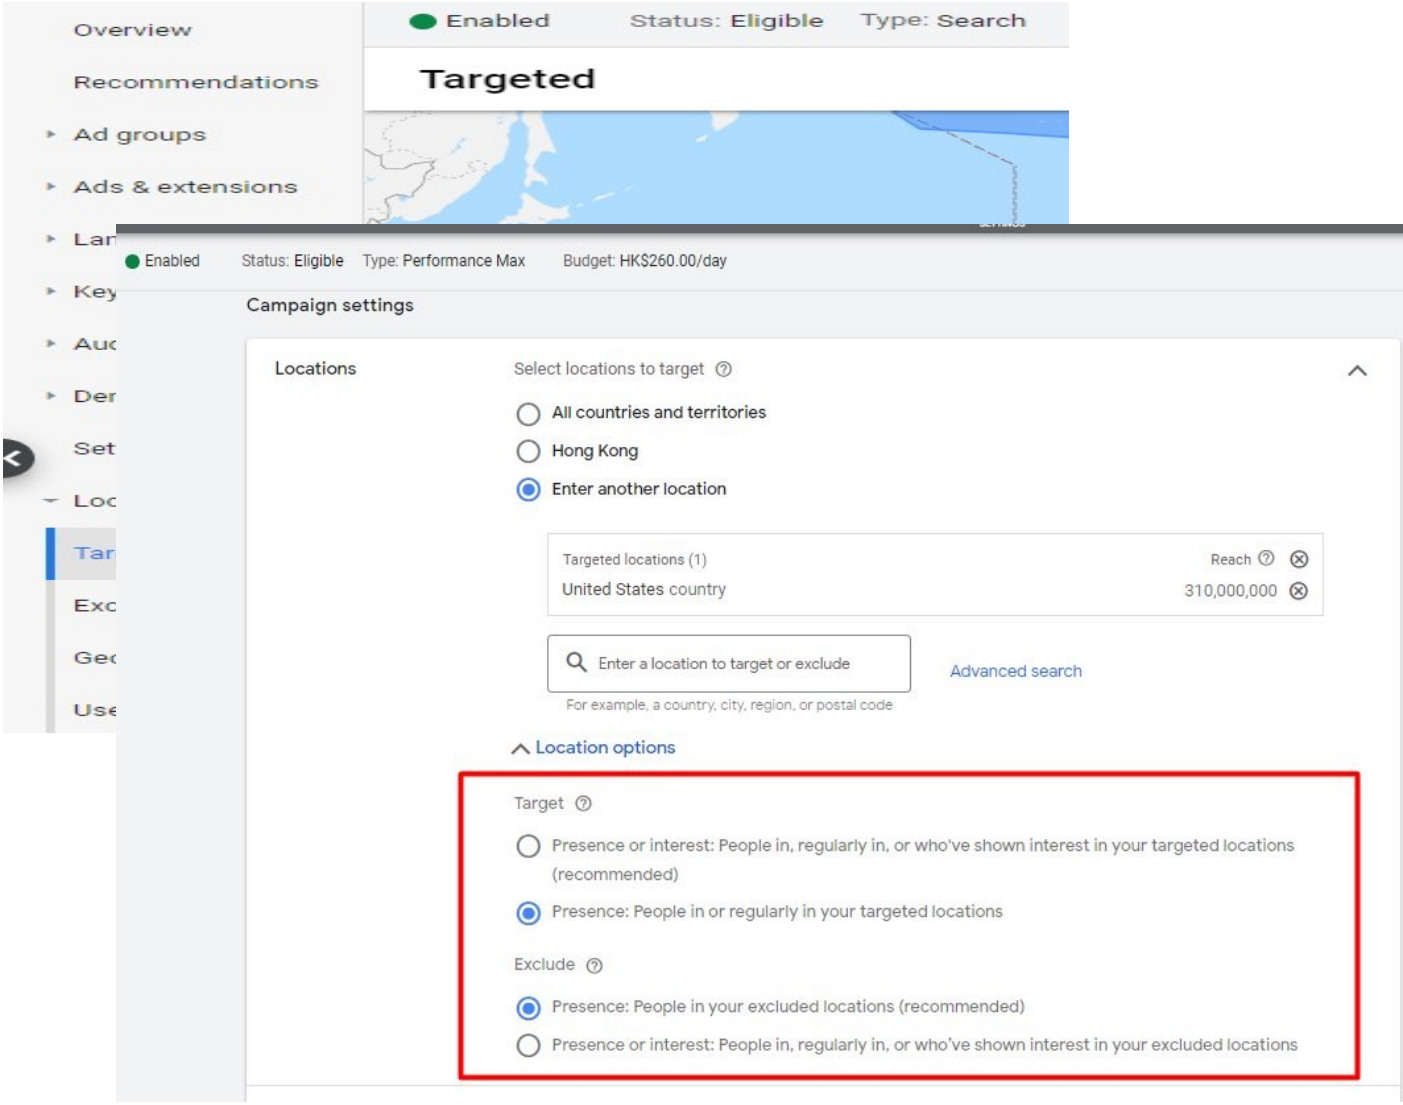
STEP 4: Create a Search Campaign

- Click 'New Campaign'.
- Select goal: Sales.
- Choose campaign type: Search.
- Disable Display Network for better traffic quality.



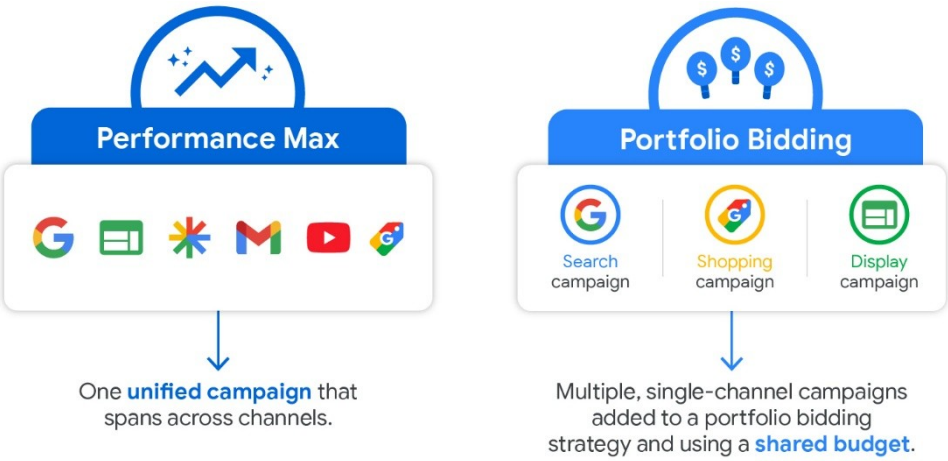
STEP 5: Location and Language Targeting

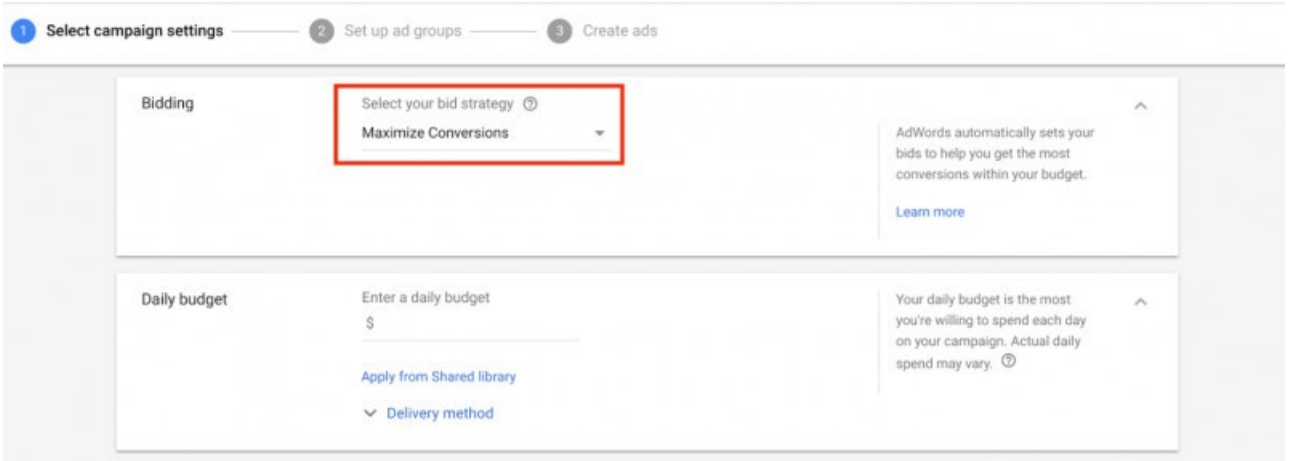
- Select specific cities or regions.
- Choose 'Presence: People in or regularly in your locations'.
- Select the appropriate language.

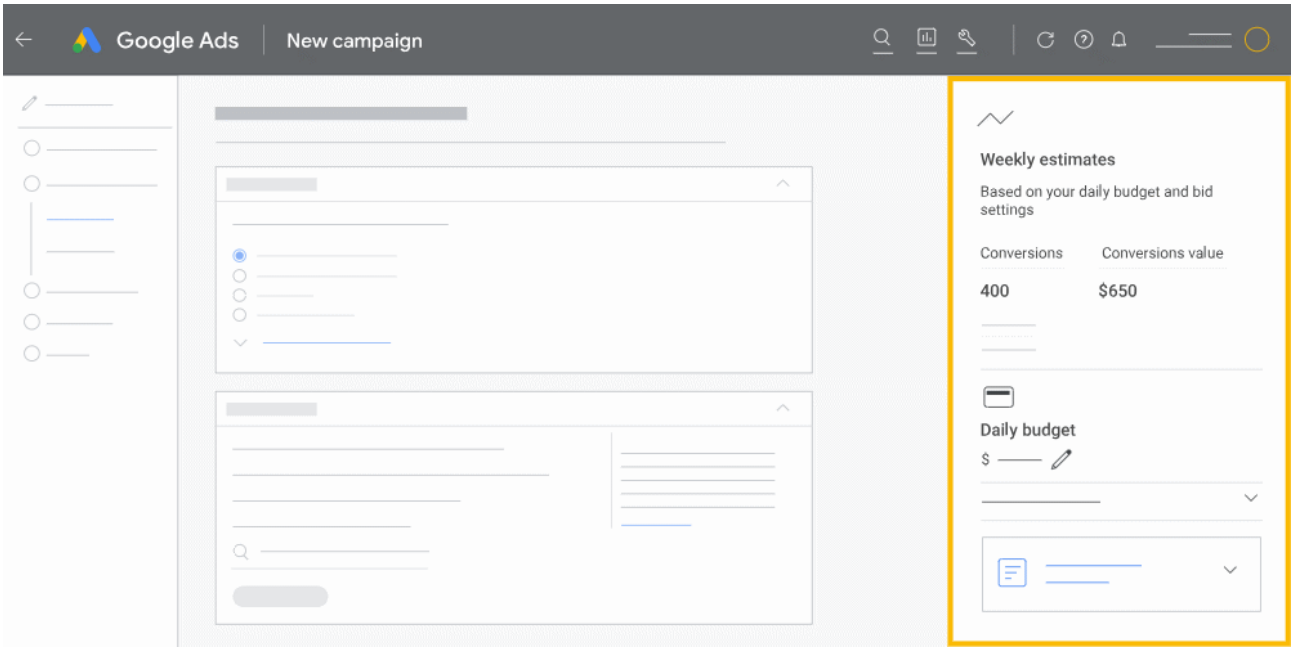


STEP 6: Budget and Bidding Strategy

- Set a daily budget (recommended test budget: $10–$20/day minimum).
- If you have data: use Maximize Conversions.
- If no data: start with Maximize Clicks temporarily.

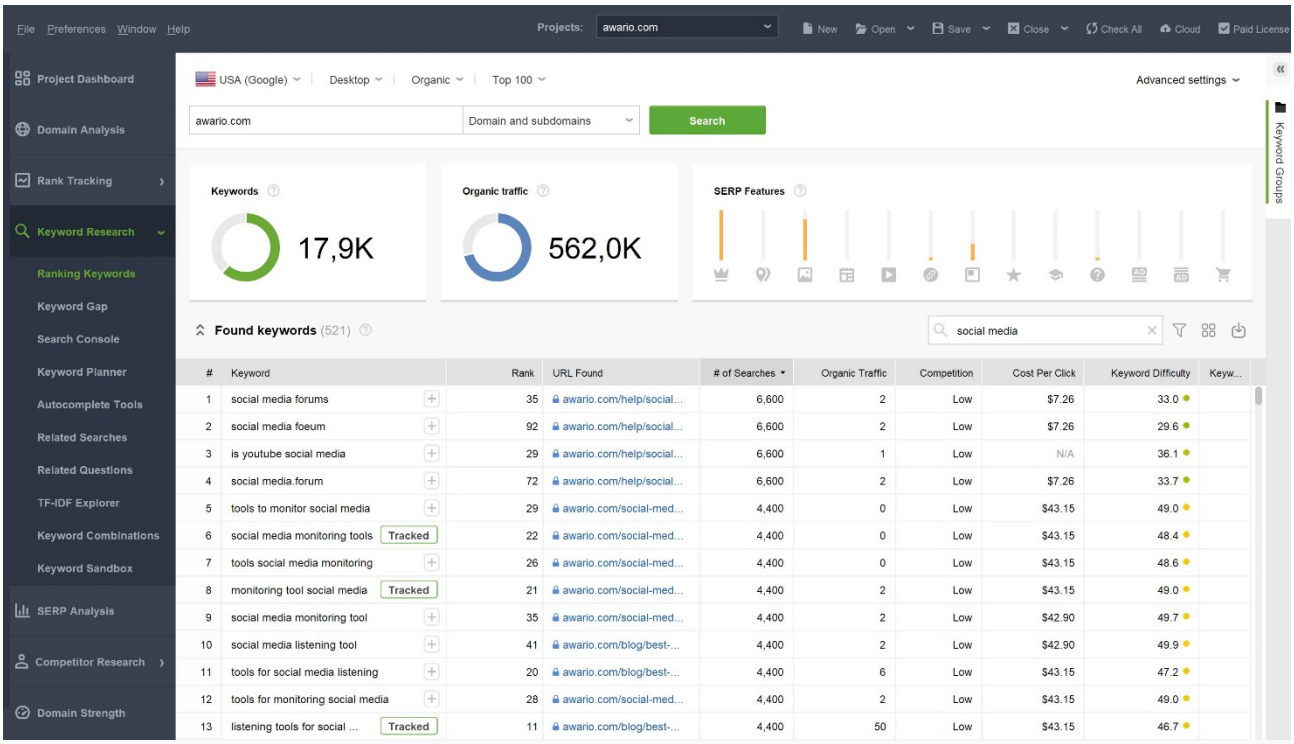


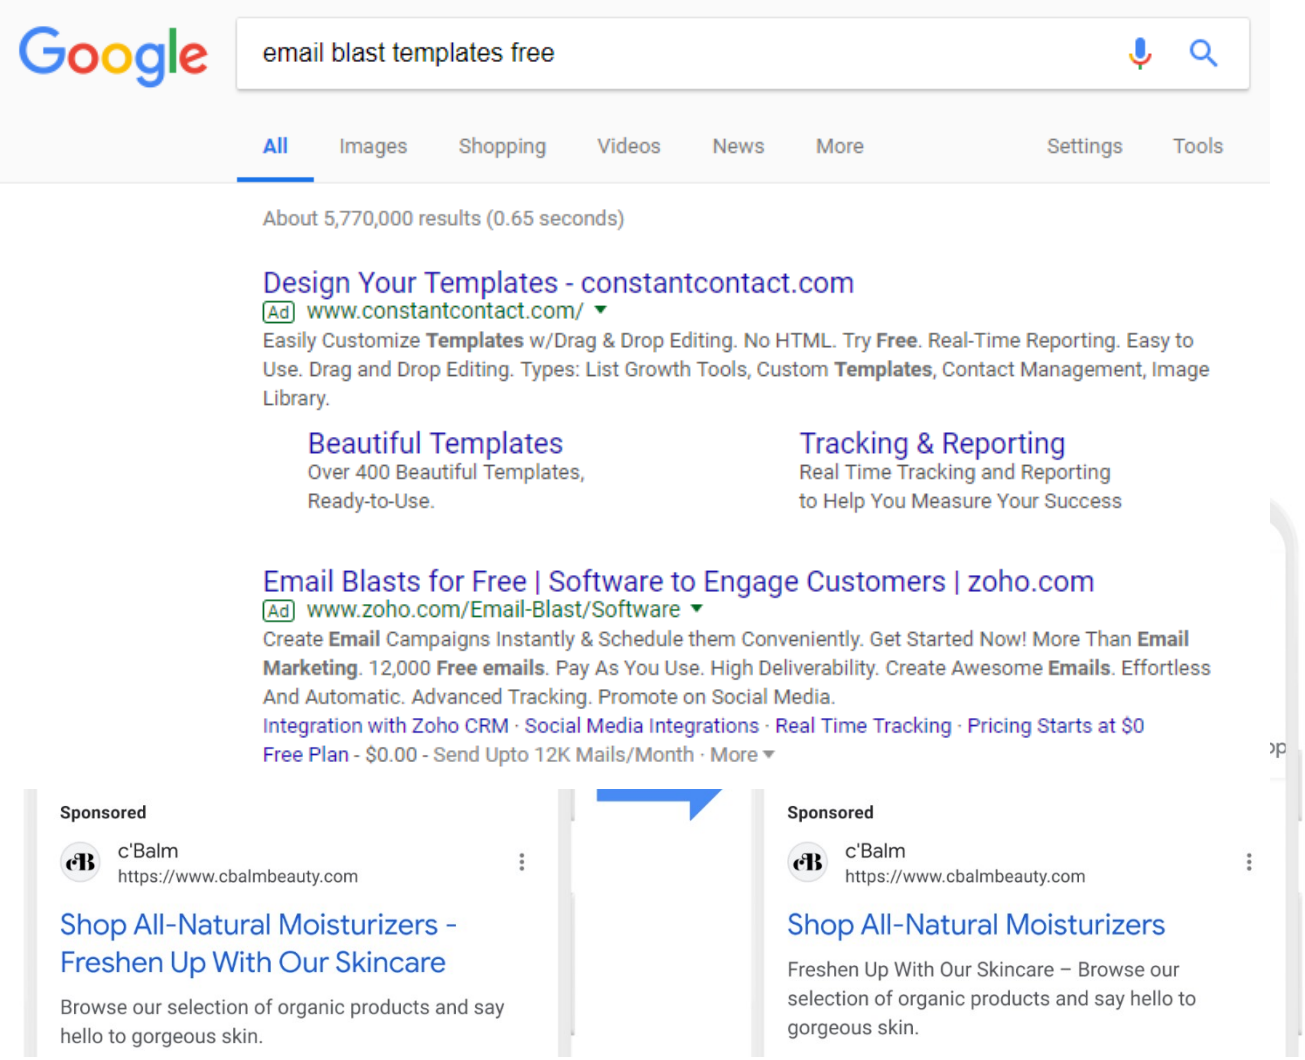




STEP 7: Keyword Research

- Use Keyword Planner.
- Focus on commercial intent keywords (buy, order, price, delivery).
- Use Phrase Match and Exact Match.
- Add negative keywords.





STEP 8: Create Ads

- Create at least 2–3 Responsive Search Ads.
- Include keywords in headlines.
- Highlight benefits and offers.
- Add a strong call to action.
- Add extensions (sitelinks, callouts, phone number).

STEP 9: Launch and Optimization

• Double-check all settings.

• Launch the campaign.

• Monitor CTR, CPC, conversions, and cost per conversion.

• Optimize every 5–7 days (pause poor keywords, add negatives, test new ads).
